Broadway Counselling & Therapy

This five-hour workshop will explore the end of relationships whether that is the result of a separation/divorce, a fractured or estranged relationship or through death. Whether you chose to leave a relationship or someone chose to leave you, if you have an estranged relationship, or if you have someone you cared about who passed away, this workshop will provide a safe space to create and to have conversation with others.

Participants will create a piece of art that reflects their personal experience of a relationship coming to an end. Conversation will be a part of this workshop with the intention to process personal emotions, thoughts and experiences.

Barbara will provide examples of creative projects that participants may want to utilize and/or each participant is encouraged to bring their own ideas for their art project.

Paints, clay, paper, magazines, notebooks, pens, markers, pencil crayons and other art supplies will be on hand. Participants are also welcome to bring whatever art supplies they want.

Location: 813 Broadway Avenue, 3rd Floor Loft (this requires walking up two flights of stairs)

Coffee and tea will be provided. Please bring your own lunch or there are plenty of restaurants/cafes if you want to get some take out. Microwave and small fridge is available.
